

Dr Ferry Jie completed his doctorate study at The University of Sydney in 2008. His PhD thesis is “Supply Chain Analysis in the Australian Beef Industry”. Currently, Dr Jie is an Associate Professor at School of Business and Law, Edith Cowan University. Previously, he was a Senior Lecturer and taking a program coordinator role in Logistics and Supply Chain Management (LSCM) at RMIT University. He was managing and coordinating the undergraduate program in LSCM at RMIT from 2015 to 2016.

Dr Jie has maintained a high quality of research throughout his academic career including international scholarly leadership in the areas of supply chain management and logistics, including being invited to be keynote speaker and to give public lectures at symposiums and international conferences in Indonesia, Malaysia, Vietnam, China and Australia. From 2011 to 2016, Dr Jie has published 17 refereed journal articles (including 6 (six) articles in A Ranked Journal - ABDC Journal Lists) and 15 refereed conference papers. Furthermore, Dr Jie has received research grants/awards to the amount of $204,604.07 between 2010 and 2016.

Dr Jie is a member of the following associations:

- Asia Academy of Management (AAoM), Representative at Large (2017-2019)
- Australian New Zealand Academy of Management (ANZAM), Member
- Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport in Australia (CILTA), RILT Member
- International Journal of Production Economics, Adhoc reviewer
- International Journal of Production Research, Adhoc reviewer
- International Journal of Logistics Management (IJLM), Adhoc reviewer
- Supply Chain and Logistics Association of Australia (SCLAA), Member
- Supply Chain Indonesia (SCI), Advisory Board Member